

Are you missing band or orchestra this fall because of remote learning? Senseney has virtual lesson options for the young musician for all levels of string and wind players. Senseney also offers an online rental program for the beginner that makes it easy to rent from the comfort of your home. Each beginning student receives one free lesson with their rental. For more information about rentals and to register for lessons go to senseneymusic.com